Dear colleague

With pleasure I announce the 21st edition of The Amsterdam International Medical Summer School.

In 2010 four courses will be presented, organized by the Academic Medical Center University of Amsterdam (AMC-UvA):

- Diabetes and the metabolic syndrome (July 4 - 30)
- Bridging health care with IT (July 4 - 16)

For advanced students in Medicine, Biology, Biomedical and Health Sciences and for recent graduates.

- Summer School of Nursing: Care connects (July 4 - 16)

For certified nurses with extensive experience (at least 5 years) in clinical practice.

- BioBusiness Summer School (August 23 - September 3)

For PhD-students and postdoctoral fellows.

Teachers are experts of the AMC-UvA and other international centers.

An interesting and stimulating academic, social and cultural program is offered in co-operation with the Amsterdam-Maastricht Summer University.

We kindly ask you to make these Summer Schools widely known in your institution.

For further information and application:

We hope to welcome your students or staff to Amsterdam as participant in one of our courses of The Amsterdam International Medical Summer School and we will do our utmost to make their stay both useful and enjoyable.

Yours sincerely

Professor L.J. Gunning-Schepers,
Dean Faculty of Medicine
Chairperson of the Executive Board AMC-UvA
